Knights In Moments

Interesting, silly, funny, serious, boring, sad, and exciting moments are all part of a knight's life. The knight community provides opportunities to express individuality and school spirit, moments to think alone and moments to be together.

Our opening focuses on a fall "knight" moment, the bonfire to fire up for a football victory over St. Joe. The air was crisp and the fire burned bright. The cheerleaders cheered. The football team played "Happy Birthday" on cuzoos for Coach Hardman. Some brought marshmallows to roast. And there were plenty of friends to see.

We, the yearbook staff, hope you enjoy the other moments we captured for you on the following pages to help you remember in the years to come.

Ashley Mickels — no rain nor sleet nor cold of night can keep her from cheering.

Mark Minne, Robin Villanueva, Jaymin Patel roast marshmallows by the fire.

Mark VanHuffel, Pat Rienks, Mike Tafelski, the all American Kzoo Band.

"As soon as I got to the top of the pyramid, it crashed!"

Jaymin Patel

"After the bonfire, I found marshmallow in my hair from the marshmallow fight!"

Todd Skwarcan

Mr. Armington smiles his approval of Megan Furry's sign.

Christy Collins asks Miss Jordan, "Did you really say that we had a test tomorrow?"

Brian Harding and Andy White cannot believe that the Knights have fallen behind!

Mrs. Sheets gives help to Karen Whitman.

First Moments

"Thank God that there is only one week left until Mrs. Switzer comes back!" thinks Mrs. Kayser.

This year many new faces have joined the Marian community. Some have been around Marian before this year, but some are very new to our school. Two people who have been associated with Marian before are Mrs. Kathleen Scheets and Miss Cherie Leatherwood.

Miss Leatherwood wishes Marian could discover a way to give more financial scholarships so that more people can discover the closeness of Marian.

Mrs. Scheets came to Marian at the end of the 86-87 year. She replaced Mrs. Verhamme as the computer teacher.

Dr. Edward Levenson is the new Latin teacher at Marian. "Teaching is a fulfilling vocation," he says. "But you must know Latin to understand what vocation means."

Sr. Mary Jane Sloderbeck is the new librarian at Marian. She likes Marian, especially the "studious students." Sr. Mary Jane says the staff is friendly and willing to help.

Sr. Chris Kozlowski is really impressed with the friendliness and acceptance of the Marian community.

Sr. Jackie Kozlowski thinks Marian is neat, is impressed with the friendliness of everyone and is proud to be a part of our school.

Mr. Richard Armington also really likes the friendliness of faculty and students, and their school pride.

Miss Stephanie Jordan, who did her student teaching at Marian, says that she really likes the enthusiasm of the students and enjoys her classes.

Mrs. Janus Horrall says "Marian has honest students and Christian standards."

And of course there are the new faces of the Freshmen. Troy Dobosiewicz and Steve Hartman

"Where do I go now?" asks Kalonji Martin.

Dr. Levenson makes a point at the Teacher Institute.

"My most unexpected experience of the first day of school was the Seniors being so nice, unlike stories I had heard."

Danielle Pietraszewski

"Everything went well on my first day at M.H.S."

Robert Bickett

"Mrs. Nauts told me that school started today because I thought it was orientation!"

Lydia Daniel

A Moment For Prayer

Marian is a community of people working, struggling, playing, and experiencing together the gift of education, and the presence of Christ in the midst of that process. We are also a celebrating community. The way in which we as a community celebrate best is at our daily and all school liturgies. It is in these moments of prayer and fellowship that we become most aware of Christ in all that we do at Marian.

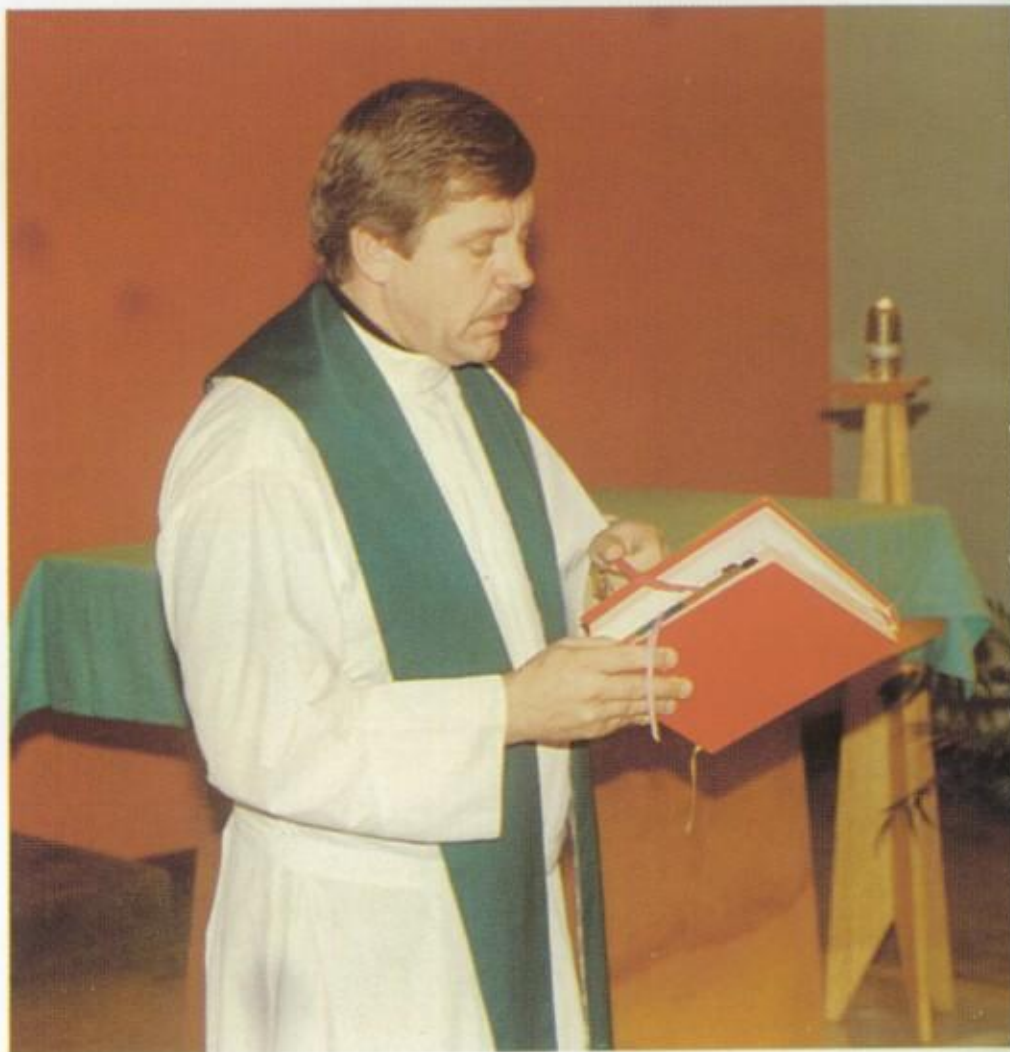

To make what we experience in the Eucharist a reality in our everyday lives, is the real purpose of celebrating together as a community. In this we sometimes succeeded, and many times failed, but always we tried. Learning to see Christ alive in our brothers and sisters, and breaking bread with each other whether in chapel, or the classroom or the gym is the task we have all been called to. This will always be a struggle. We are blessed simply because we have chosen to accept this challenge in our lives.

Fr. Marty

Come and get it! (Fr. Marty)

"Peace be with you," says Ellen Cierzniak to Mrs. Moore.

Father Marty loses his place!

Tim Toepp receives the cup from Mary Pat Rosenthal.

Stefanie Taylor holds the blood of Christ.

"Morning mass allows the students a more personal mass."

Beth Kuzmic

"My greatest privilege each day is to celebrate the Eucharist with the Marian community." Fr. Marty MaryAnn Hinora gives Sr. Jeanne the blood of Christ.

?!?!?! Paul Glass and George Mighion.

"Genetha, I still do not understand!" exclaims Heather Blank.

Is this supposed to be group work?
(Corinne Coppens, Kristi Dipert, Bonnie Heaton, and Julie Ellis.)

Some days are pretty rough Angie Sullivan!

"I'm just taking a moment to let it sink in," Jon Kurek.

"Whenever I am late for class, there always seems to be a pop quiz!" Jenny Marosz.

"My best excuse for being late for class is that my leg got caught in my locker." Carl Giefling.

Jill Green rushes into school at 8:09!

At A Moment's Notice

It's 8:09 on a dreary Monday morning as you stumble bleary-eyed into Marian High School. You toss your books in your locker, grab your Geometry book and dash to Theology. You run down the hall, mow down a freshman, make a sharp left, hurdle two desks, and land in your seat at the sound of the bell. It is obviously the beginning of a great day!

Of course, you are prepared for class. Only a delinquent from Penn would dare show his face in class unprepared. The shouts of protest uttered by you and your friends, when told to clear your desks and take out a sheet of paper, are merely delay tactics. How then would you account for a one out of ten on that pop quiz you just took? Trick questions!

The bell awakens you at the end of first hour, and you exit in the same manner that you entered. You pause at the drinking fountain to refresh yourself with lukewarm, "recycled" water. Then you amble towards second hour.

"By the way, your term papers are due tomorrow," announces your teacher, who is immediately greeted by an assortment of groans, moans and expressions of outrage.

"No fair!"

"What the ...!"

"You only gave us two months to do it in!"

"You have to understand that we have six other classes!"

Nonetheless, your teacher remains dry eyed as your classmates hash through their tales of woe. Really you and your classmates have your term papers already completed. You are just killing class time. After all, only a Caveman wouldn't have his term paper done a month in advance.

Lois Donahue

Renae Conner is put on hold again.

"Could I take a message?" asks Diane Rees.

It's a dirty job, but somebody has to do it. (Maria Kosek)

Mark Van Huffel, Mike Whitman, David Kennedy, and Fr. Marty toy around.

Mark Van Huffel found a quiet corner to do his spare work for Fr. Marty.

"Working in the cafeteria is not so bad except when the line gets long."

"Things can get pretty messy!"

A Moment In The Spotlight

The office and cafeteria workers play an important part of the school. We see them everyday picking up attendance slips, serving lunch to students everyday, listening to complaints about the food, and handling problems that come up.

They work hard to make the school day easier for students so that they can have a better day. The cafeteria workers make it possible for the students to have a hot meal by working, besides earning money.

Office workers make sure the school is running smoothly. By working each day, the students are also exposed to secretarial careers.

Both type of workers should be thanked for providing such a valuable service to our school.

"Remember Little Debbie's only cost 35¢ not 50¢ Marget Justice says to Mike Merckx.

Missy Weber gives her mom lessons in the culinary arts.

This is how Dave Norton spends his free time.

"Victory is imminent!" Mr. DeVreese exclaims to Mr. Haas excitedly, but Ryan Haas is not so sure.

Spare Moments

"I like to dance in my free time." Amy Brewers.

"I play the organ and work on my stamp collection in my spare time." Emery Antalavits.

"I vegetate in my free time." Teresa Conn.

Can you stand on your head, juggle balls with your feet and sing the national anthem? Don't feel bad, not too many can. If this isn't your type of fun, then maybe you have your own special talents or hobbies.

Talents often come in handy when a student knows how to use them. For example, if you are caught in the hall without a pass. Only the most talented escape artist can get out of this perilous predicament, or only the quickest sprinter can run from their car to their classroom in ten seconds flat.

Hobbies are a good way to spend time. Sketching, doodling is such a harsh word, is one of the favorites among students. Charles Schultzes have been popping up in the classrooms.

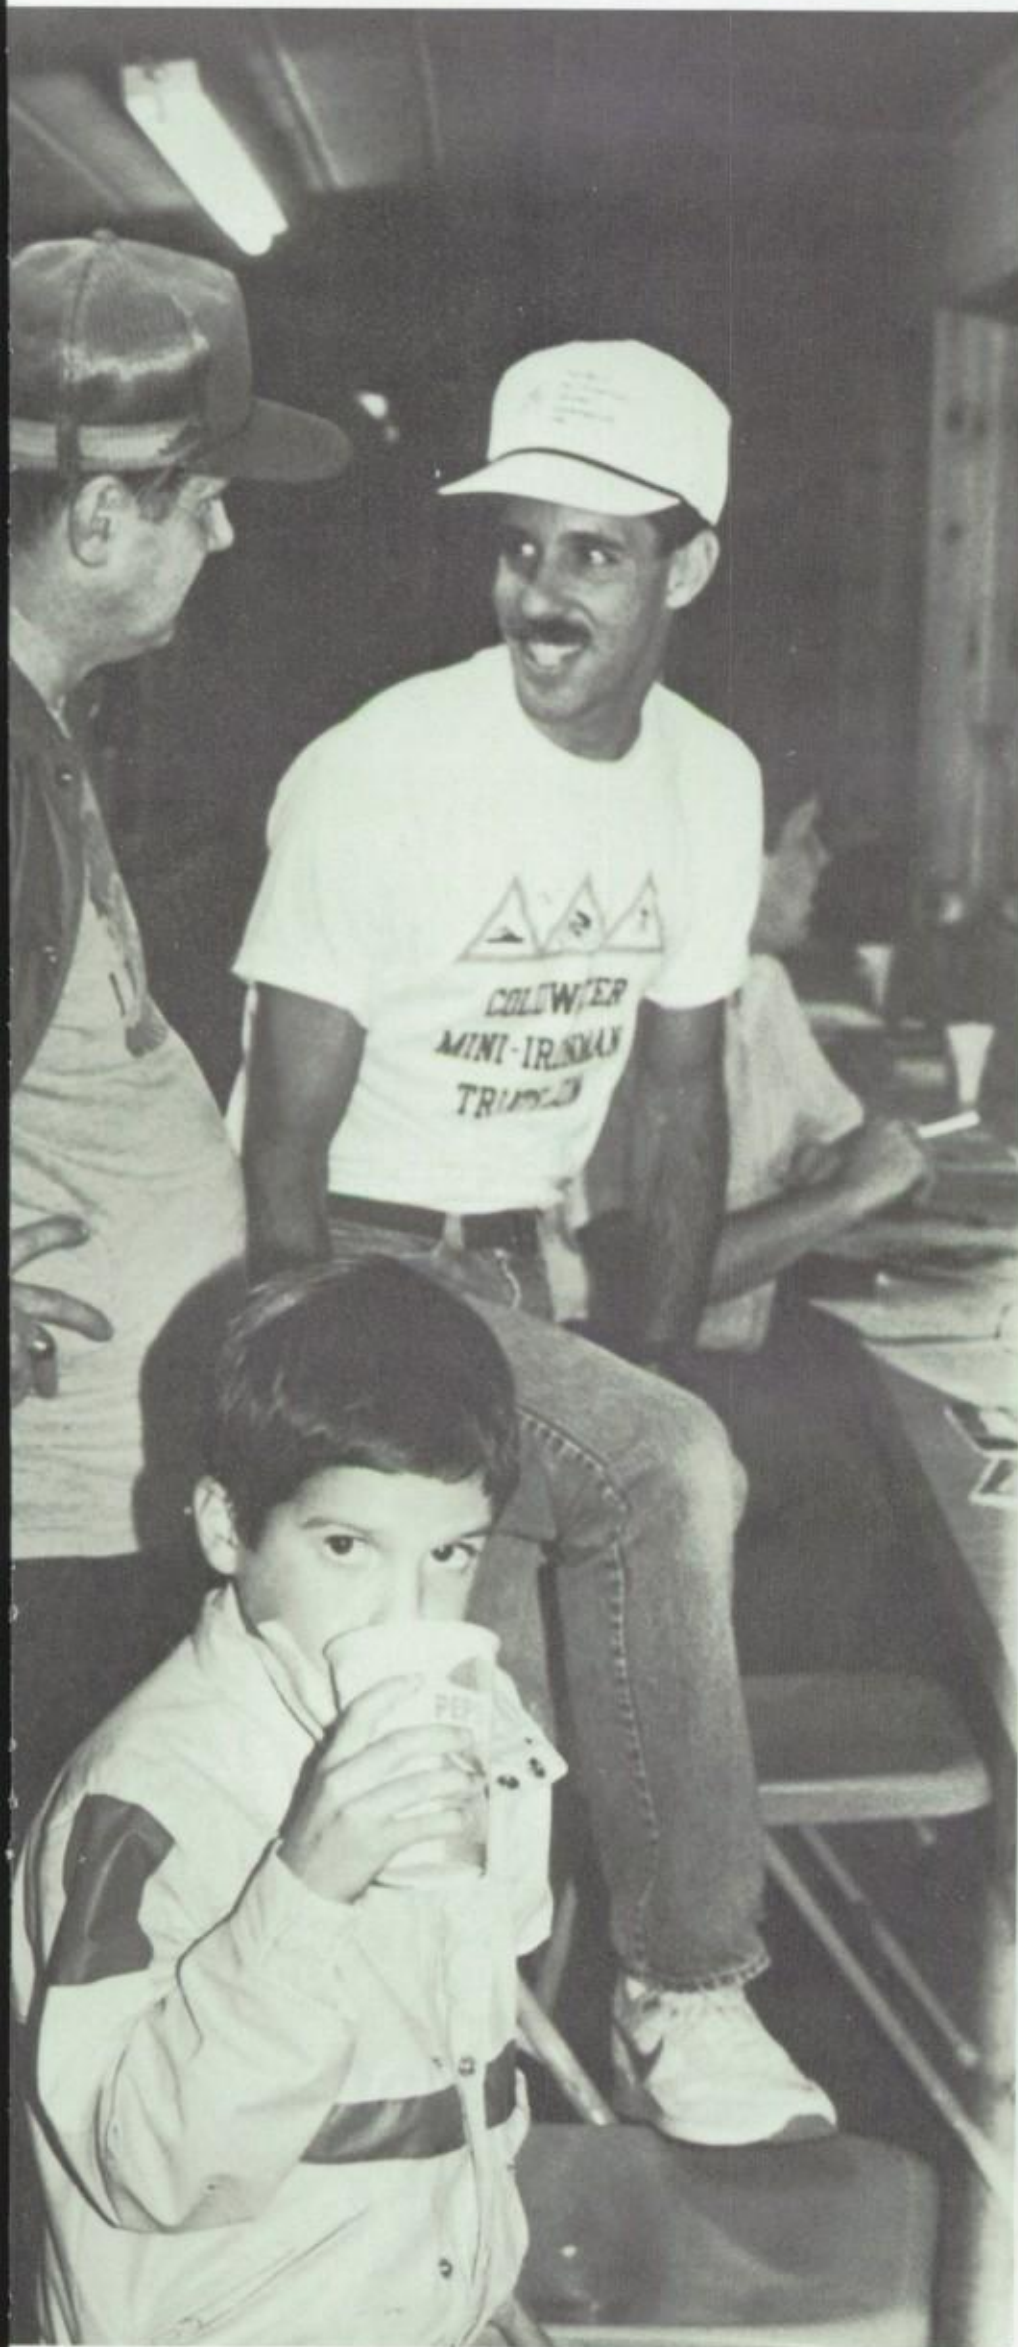

Other hobbies and talents do exist outside of these school halls. These may range from collecting bicentennial coins to running marathons.

But, what can be done with these aquired talents? You are qualified for one of the following: a known felon, a sky diver, a politician, or a grade school teacher. Whenever someone asks, "Who do you think you are?" Always reply, "I am a Marian Student."

MaryAnn Hinora

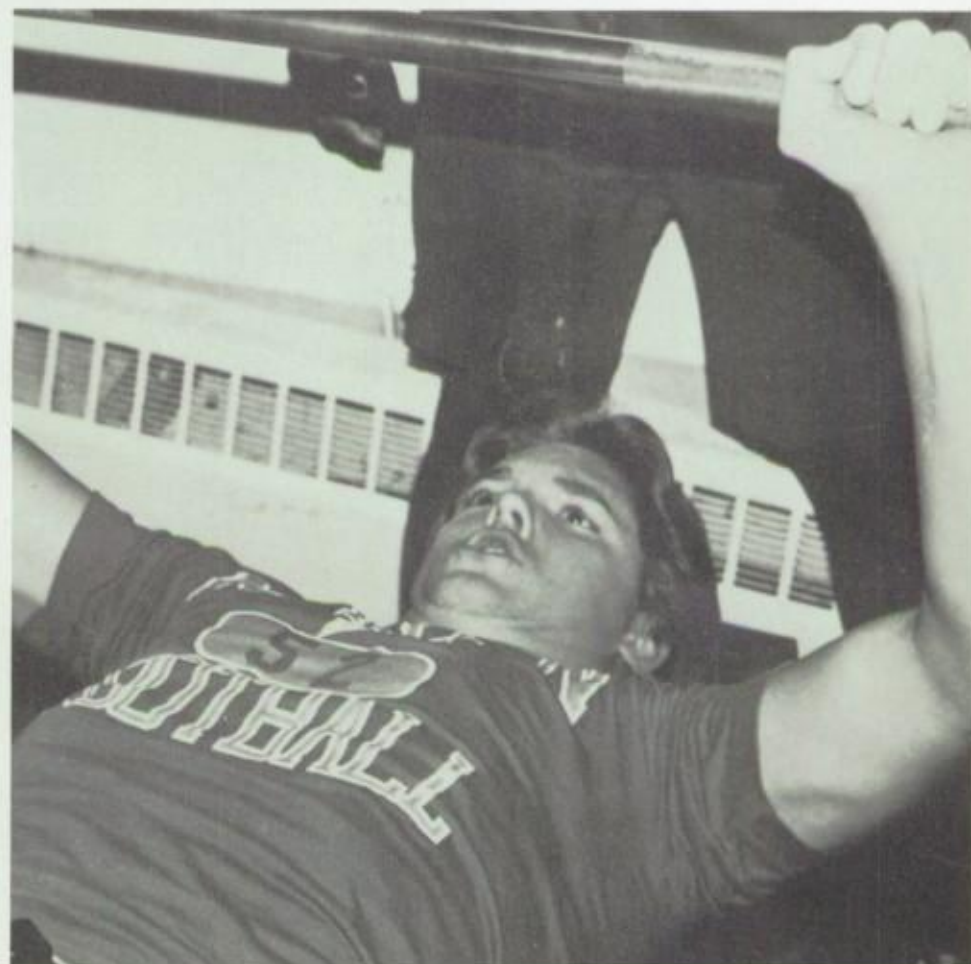

Chris Jenkins takes his daily dose of caffeine before practice.

"All this activity is making me hungry!" says Fr. Rybicki.

Jeff Spsychalski; the new Rocky.

"... 15, 22, 45, 49, 50. I'm done!"
(Andy Elliot)

A Very Special Moment

What is football season without Homecoming? This traditional duo has been a favorite since the advent of high school. Here at Marian, the students celebrate Homecoming with spirit and pride.

The 1987 Homecoming was held on September 18, 1987. The Knights played host to the New Prairie Cougars. The Homecoming court was: representing the Senior class Debbie Lefevere escorted by Marc Cripe, Chrissy Linski escorted by Dan Hobik, Barb Pietraszewski escorted by Robin Villanueva, and Susan Zielinski escorted by Bob Mikulak. Representing the Junior class was Loretta Johnston escorted by Greg Wozniak and Aimee Snoke escorted by Bill Fara-baugh. Representing the Sophomore class Corinne Coppens escorted by Brendan Kluszynski, and Representing the Freshmen class Cynthia Linski escorted by Andy Hobik.

Barb Pietraszewski was crowned the 1987 Homecoming Queen, and to make the evening complete the knights defeated the Cougars. Once again Homecoming was a successful KNIGHT!

Stefanie Taylor

"I was so surprised and happy to be on the court that I almost cried." Loretta Johnston.

"I was sad because it was my last Homecoming, but excited to be on the court, and happy to see Barb crowned queen." Debbie Lefevere.

Marc Cripe and Debbie Lefevere enjoy their last Homecoming.

Corrine Coppens and Brendan Kluszynski walk arm in arm.

"Barb, don't forget about me!" says Robin Villanueva.

"Smile Aimee, this is your time to shine!" says Bill Farabaugh.

Cynthia Linski and Andy Hobik, doesn't this look familiar?

Dough Boy and his friends — Jim Portolese, Dan Geist, Joe Szajko, Chris Fewell, Mike Tafelski.

Lois Donahue thinks, "I used to be apathetic but now I don't care!" and MaryAnn Hinora hopes for some FUN!

Seniors at the pep assembly — Maria Kosek, Wendy Lavanture, Jill Schuster, Laura Black, Christy Collins, Carolyn Bauer, Chrissy Linski, and Barb Arndt.

Paula Ciancio asks, "Where are all the Seniors?"

"You've got to be joking," thinks Carla Horvath.

Seniors quickly stuff their faces between classes. (Jenny Broering, Susanne Olson, and Jodi Holt.)

Tough Challenges Faced By The "Dirty Thirty"

The 1987 Edition of the Marian Knight's Football, the "Dirty Thirty," faced tough challenges on the grid iron. With so few players, the team had to ask a great deal of each player. The Knights played well, with 5 of their 6 losses coming by 7 points or less. First year Coach Joe Hardman said, "Every player on this team contributed something. That's all any coaching staff can ask for." On offense, the Knights were led by Seniors in the air by quarterback Pat Christianson, (93 of 185 for 1296 yds.), and Dan Hobik who caught 33 passes for 498 yards. On the ground, Senior fullback Robert Throm led the Knights with 441 yards on 79 carries. Line backer Mark VanHuffel, also a Senior anchored the defense with 60 sold tackles 57 assists, 5 interceptions, and a fumble recovery.

The 1987 Marian Knights also became the first team in school history to play a playoff game at home.

Challenging Year

Although the 5-15 record was not the most impressive standing in the history of Marian High School Volleyball, the team encountered several exciting games. Two of the most impressive games were St. Joe (first meeting) and Ft. Wayne Snider who was ranked 11th nationwide at the time.

The team was challenged throughout the course of the season. It consisted of three seniors, eight juniors, and one sophomore. Because of a young team it took time for the members to become comfortable playing together. Also, several injuries contributed to the lack of consistency on the court.

Throughout the season the team had its "peaks and valleys." One thing is true about the 1987-1988 Marian Volleyball Team. Although falling short at times, it was made up of a group of great girls who sincerely wanted only to demonstrate their skills to the best of their abilities. I will never forget you gals!

Lots Of Hard Work

Having only seven members, the girls Cross Country was still a small one. We picked up three new runners: Tracy Kepschull, Lisa Buysse, and Kim Johnson. The remaining members were all returning runners from the previous year. After taking a lot of hard knocks the year before, it seemed that winning a meet was uppermost on everyone's list of goals.

Keeping this in mind we began our season under the guidance of Coach "Daddy" Rethlake. Although we started out rather slowly, (with only five runners qualified to compete in the first meet) as the season wore on, things really began to click. We pulled together as a team and exceeded our original goals. Not only did we win several meets, but we also took 1st place in the Marian Invitational. I feel that I speak for the entire team when I say, "it was a lot of hard work but it was also a lot of fun!"

At the award banquet, Kim Johnson received the Mental Attitude award. Cheryl Fortunak received the Most Improved Player award, and Lisa Buysse received the Most Valuable Player award.

Back And Running Amuck

After an extremely disappointing and divestating season in 1986, the new Knights of '87 entered the season carrying chips on their shoulders. Combining senior leadership, upperclassmen experience, underclassmen talent, depth, and the coaching of Mr. Rethlake, the '87 Knights went on to a winning season and re-established themselves as contenders.

The contenders had an impressive fifth place finish at the New Praire Invitational, won the Marian Invitational, and held their own at the KCK Invitational. The Knights finished the regular season with an impressive win over last year's sectional champ, LaSalle, and rolled into post season action on an emotional high. At sectionals, the Knights finished a solid fourth. With the fourth place finish at sectionals, the Knights qualified for Regionals, thus ending the Knights two year absence from the Regionals. At Regionals, the Knights finished a respectable sixth.

Next year the Knights will start the season with the loss of this years nine seniors including MVP Jeff Hammes, MIP Todd Nowacki, and MA winner Pete Slamkowski, but under the talent of Doug DeWinter and the now seniors, and with the direction and leadership of captain Sean Urbanski, the Knights of the future should continue the tradition of Running Amuck in Indiana.

Senior Leadership

If you drove past Rose Park this fall, you might have seen some familiar faces. It was probably the Marian boys tennis team.

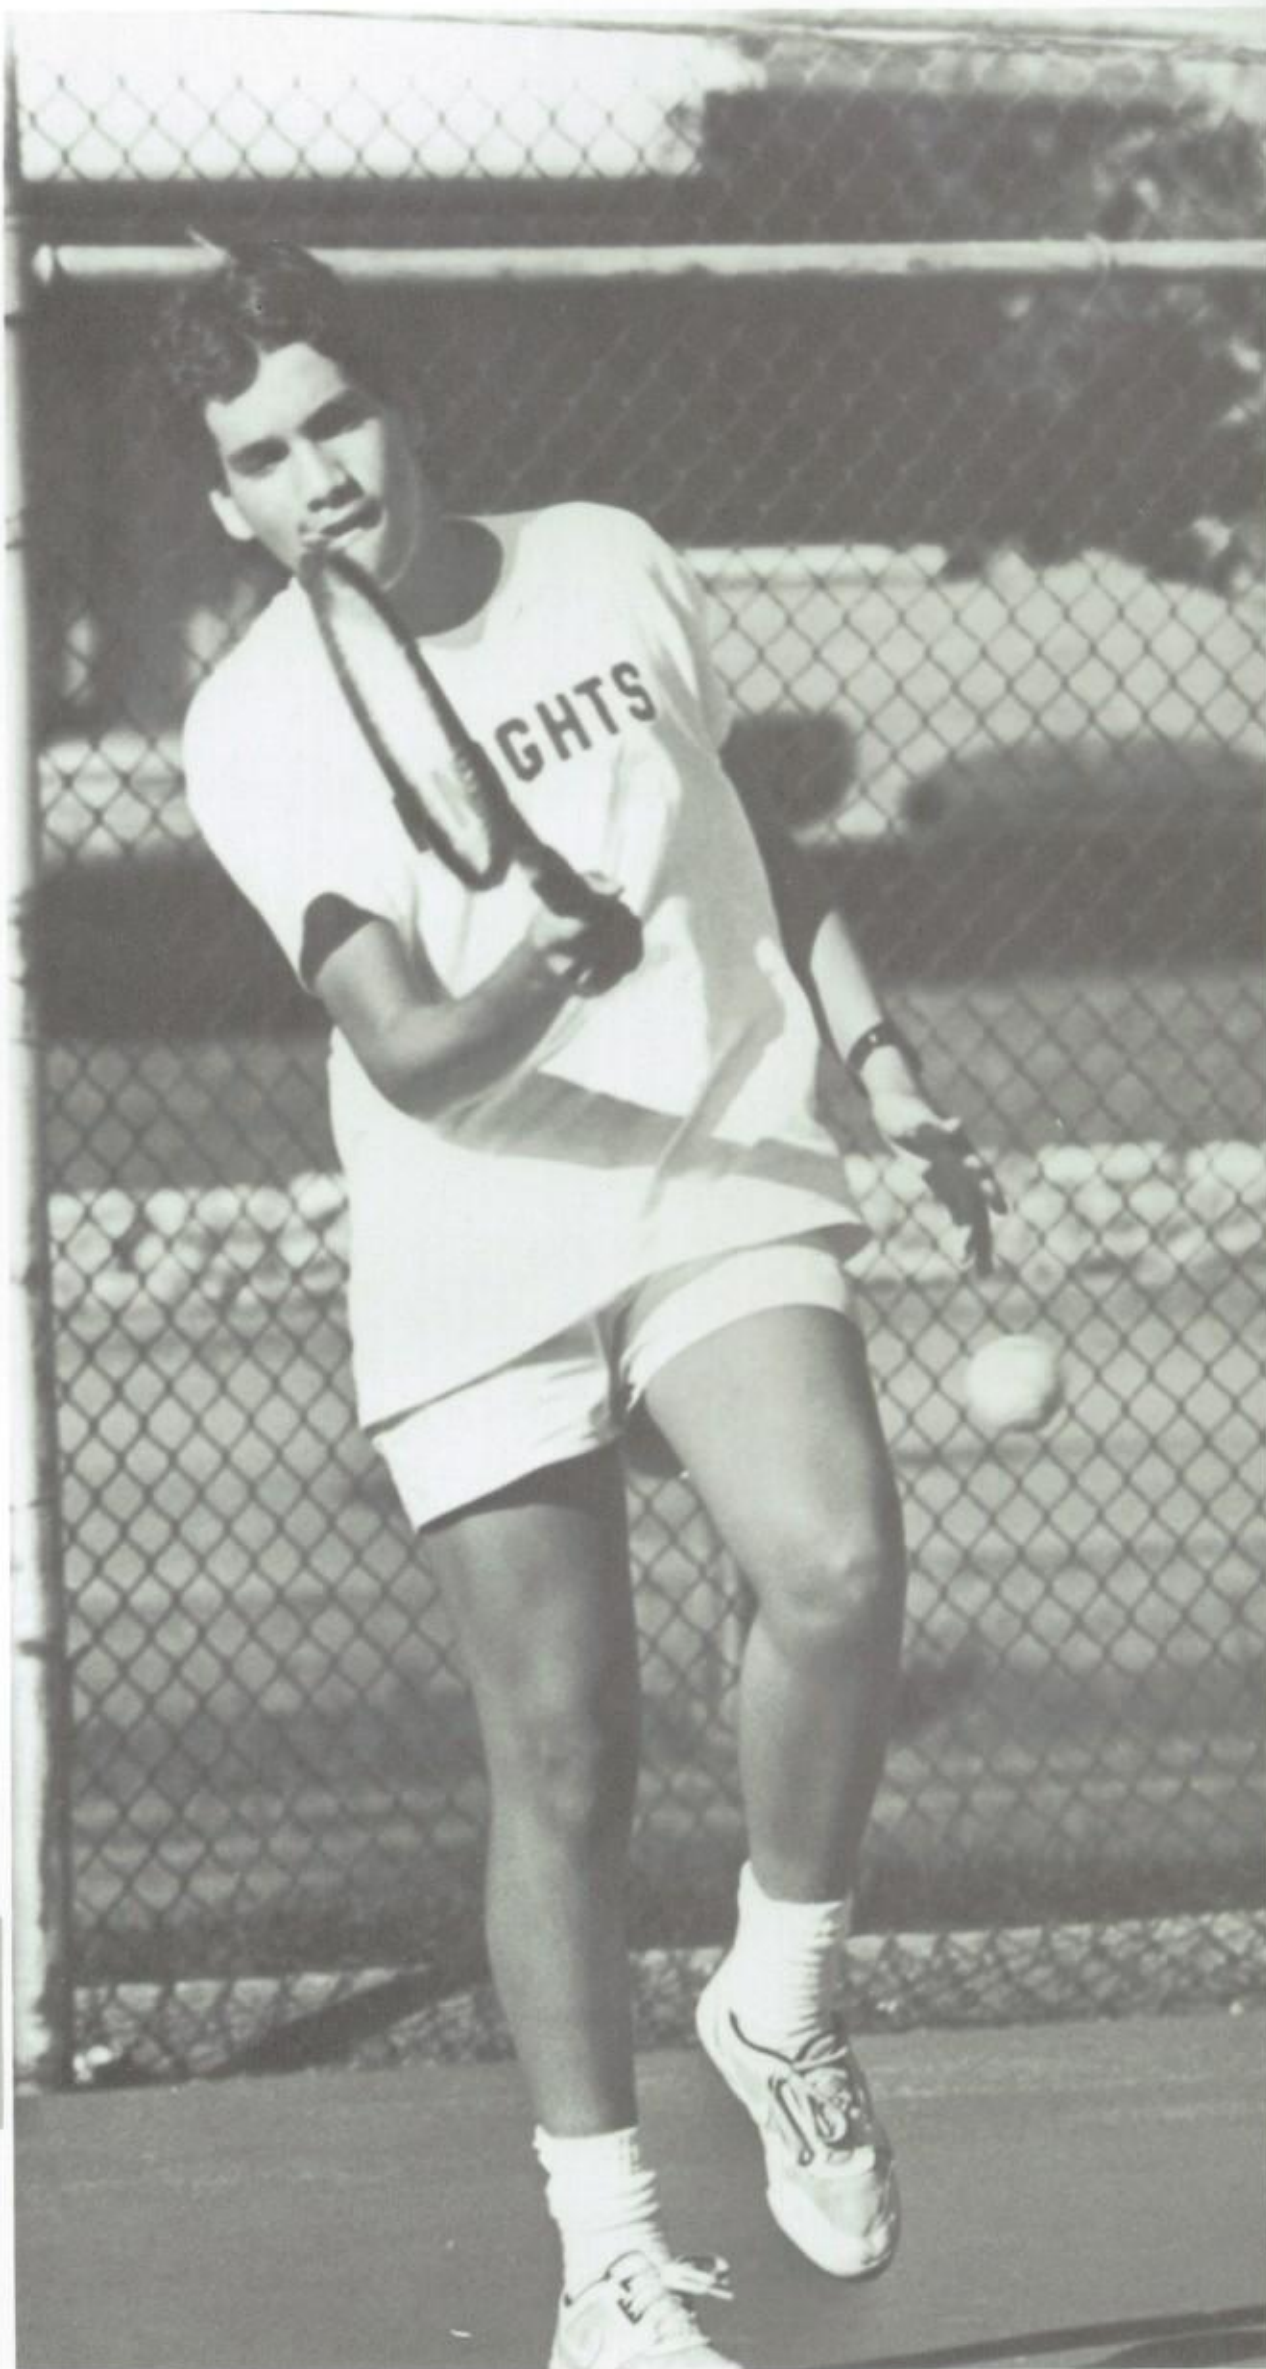

Led by Coach Rob Hueni, the 1987 Knight tennis team posted an impressive 7-4 regular season record. The season was filled with many highlights. For the first time in Coach Hueni's career, the Knights defeated a 17th ranked Adam's club and scalped archrival St. Joe.

Despite a first round loss in sectionals to highly ranked Penn, the Knights had one of their best seasons yet. The 1987 Varsity Squad included Bill Farabaugh, Chris Kintzele, Juan Garcia, Kirk Cordill, Chris Walling, Matt Jenkins, and Jeff Whitman.

At the annual awards banquet in November, Chris Walling received the Most Valuable Player award for the second consecutive year. Matt Jenkins received the Mental Attitude award and Jeff Whitman received the Most Improved Player award.

The Knights will be losing 5 seniors, but the young squad has some very talented players coming up from junior varsity and hope to prove themselves next year.

Have Come A Long Way!

For the fourth year in a row, the Marian Girls Tennis Team had a remarkable season. Starting as "the new kid on the block" in 1985, the girls have come a long way. With five returning lettermen, all being seniors, the team was well led. The #2 doubles team of Mari Mauro and Laura Woodka added their tennis abilities to the strong lineup consisting of Sara Heinz, Susan Quinn, Chrissy Linski, Barb Pietraszewski, and Carolyn Bauer.

Led by 3-year coach Rob Hueni, the girls were worked hard. The new 20-minute drill and line sprints that he had them do this year proved to be a true challenge, yet very beneficial in the end. Dinners at the Spaghetti Works put the much-needed carbohydrates in the girls' diets, which were primarily made up of junk food.

The Knights finished the season with an overall record of 17-2, with their only losses to Concord in regular season play and Elkhart Central in Semi-State action. They captured the 1st place title at the Plymouth Invitational and came in second in the Concord Tournament. Defeating 4 teams, the girls won their fourth sectional title in a row. The Knights then proceeded to win the regional title, crushing Plymouth 5-0. They lost a close match to Elkhart, 3-2, in the first round of Semi-State play. Congratulations to the girls on their fine performance and best wishes in the years to come!

Poise And Teamwork

Poise, determination, and teamwork were the key ingredients that fueled the 1988 Marian Boys Soccer Team. The team was very well rounded and by combining the knowledge, leadership, and skill of the upperclassmen with the talent of some of the younger players, the team finished with a 11-5-2 record and managed to upset many of its opponents including No. 2 ranked Concord and undefeated Bishop Luers. The Knights established themselves as one of the top teams in the area and with more talented players going out the Knights should stay at the top.

Team Unity Makes Season Memorable

The 1987 Girl's soccer team reached its height this year under the direction of Coach Roy Roelke. The team was led by a strong group of Seniors and some talented underclassmen. Strong team unity, both on and off the field was a credit to their performance. Some highlights of the season include 2nd place in the Marian Invitational, reaching the semi-finals of the Northern Indiana Cup, and a victory against Breubuf during their trip to Indianapolis.

Some strong individual performances were turned in by the Knights as well. Mary Pat Rosenthal captured 1st team All state and All area honors, while Barb Arndt, Kelly Kirkner, and Andrea Kurek were named to the All-Area 2nd team. Jodi Holt was named to The Honorable Mention All Area team.

Says Coach Roelke of the 1987 Soccer season "with the exception of a few 1986 Seniors and underclassmen, this group of Seniors dominated Marian soccer for the past two years. We will miss them greatly and compare future teams to them in years to come. Even though we never beat one of the Big 3 and I'm going to go bald, I salute them all."

Enthusiasm Shines

Once again the 1987 Football and 1987-88 Basketball Cheerleading Squads entertained crowds with their spirit and enthusiasm.

The Football Cheerleading Squad began their work early summer by attending a Universal Cheerleading Association at Indiana University.

There they learned new cheers and techniques. The Varsity Squad was also nominated and performed in the camp's cheerleading competition.

The Football Cheerleaders sponsored a very successful Cheerleading Clinic for grade school students with the assistance of Cherie Leatherwood.

Molly Miller received the Most Improved Award, Stefanie Taylor won the Mental Attitude Award and Debbie Lefever received the award for Most Valuable Player.

The 1987-88 Basketball Cheerleading Squads worked with the band and Pom Pon squad to create interesting Pre-game and timeout routines. The girls also decorated the locker room and painted signs for the Basketball team.

The Most Improved Award went to Kelli Heinz, Ellen Cierniak won the Mental Attitude Award and Ashley Mickels was elected the Most Valuable Player.

This year's Varsity Pom-Pon Squad consisted of 14 sophomore, junior, and senior girls. They had an exciting year dazzling audiences at the football and basketball halftime shows. The girls performed to many popular songs and practiced many hours to perfect their routine to "What I Like About You" by the Romantics. Who will ever forget those gravity deflecting poms?!

On May 11, 1988, a banquet was held at The Spaghetti Works. Weeks before, the squad members voted on awards distributed at the banquet. Teresa Conn was voted Most Valuable, Kelley Rienks was voted for Best Mental Attitude, and Joy Wolfe was voted Most Improved.

This year's Varsity captains were seniors Lori Nagy and Teresa Conn.

Thanks to the help of our coach Mrs. Mary Hansen and the supporting crowds, the girls had a very successful year!

Stepping

Stone Year

The 87-88 Marian Knight Wrestling season was a stepping stone to a higher degree of wrestling for most. The team lost eight members from the previous year leaving several vacancies on the team. With the recruiting of many first year and inexperienced wrestlers by new head coach Tom Dolly and assistant Coach Vukovitts, many of the vacancies were filled. However, the team forfeited somewhere between 18-24 points/match due to a lack of wrestlers. The team was lead by Senior captains Robert Throm, Joe Szajko, and Marc Cripe. With Jim Walter and John Walter assisting throughout the year, the new members of the team improved during the season. The wrestlers did have some success in the season.

The Knights surprised the competition by seizing 5 championship positions and by placing other wrestlers in the Bremen Invitational. Again, the team found success at the Mishawaka Wrestling Sectional. The Marian Grapplers advanced four wrestlers into the Laporte Regionals. For the third consecutive year, the team has sent a wrestler into the State Championship Tournament. Chuck Hruby took 1st place at the sectional and regional level and achieved a 4th place at semi-state competition to continue on to Market Square Arena for the State Tourney. Chuck had an outstanding record of 30-6 along with many accomplishments.

All of this year's wrestlers deserve a lot of credit for facing the tremendous adversity of the season.

Determination

The 1987-88 Girls Basketball season was a very memorable and exciting one. The new season brought along a different group of girls and a new coach, Theresa Pignone. As the first year as Marian High School's head coach for girls' basketball, she showed the team and the fans what it was like to have determination. Everyone learned a lot from her and enjoyed doing it. The record, 4-11 didn't show very much, but the team tried and never gave up. That is what this team was about this year, determination, never quitting!!! Several new records took place during the season. One of them being the most points scored in a game (65 against Marquette). Everyone took part in the team spirit and had a great time. Good luck next year.

Transition al Year

The 87-88 Varsity Basketball Team encountered many changes this year. The loss of three graduating seniors from last year left some important spots to be filled, especially at the point guard position. The introduction of the 3-point shot into the high school level had a great impact on the season. Brian McGillicuddy's last second shot at M.C. Marquette would not have won the game without the 3-pointer. Lastly, the team received a new coach, Richard Armington. A college teammate of Mike Lightfoot, Mr. Armington had many of the same philosophies as the former Marian coach. This made the transition easier for the players.

With a record of 11-11, the Knights' downs were equalled by the ups. Despite the record, the season was full of achievements. Fewest points allowed in a game, fewest average points per game, and the second sectional victory in the last 18 years.

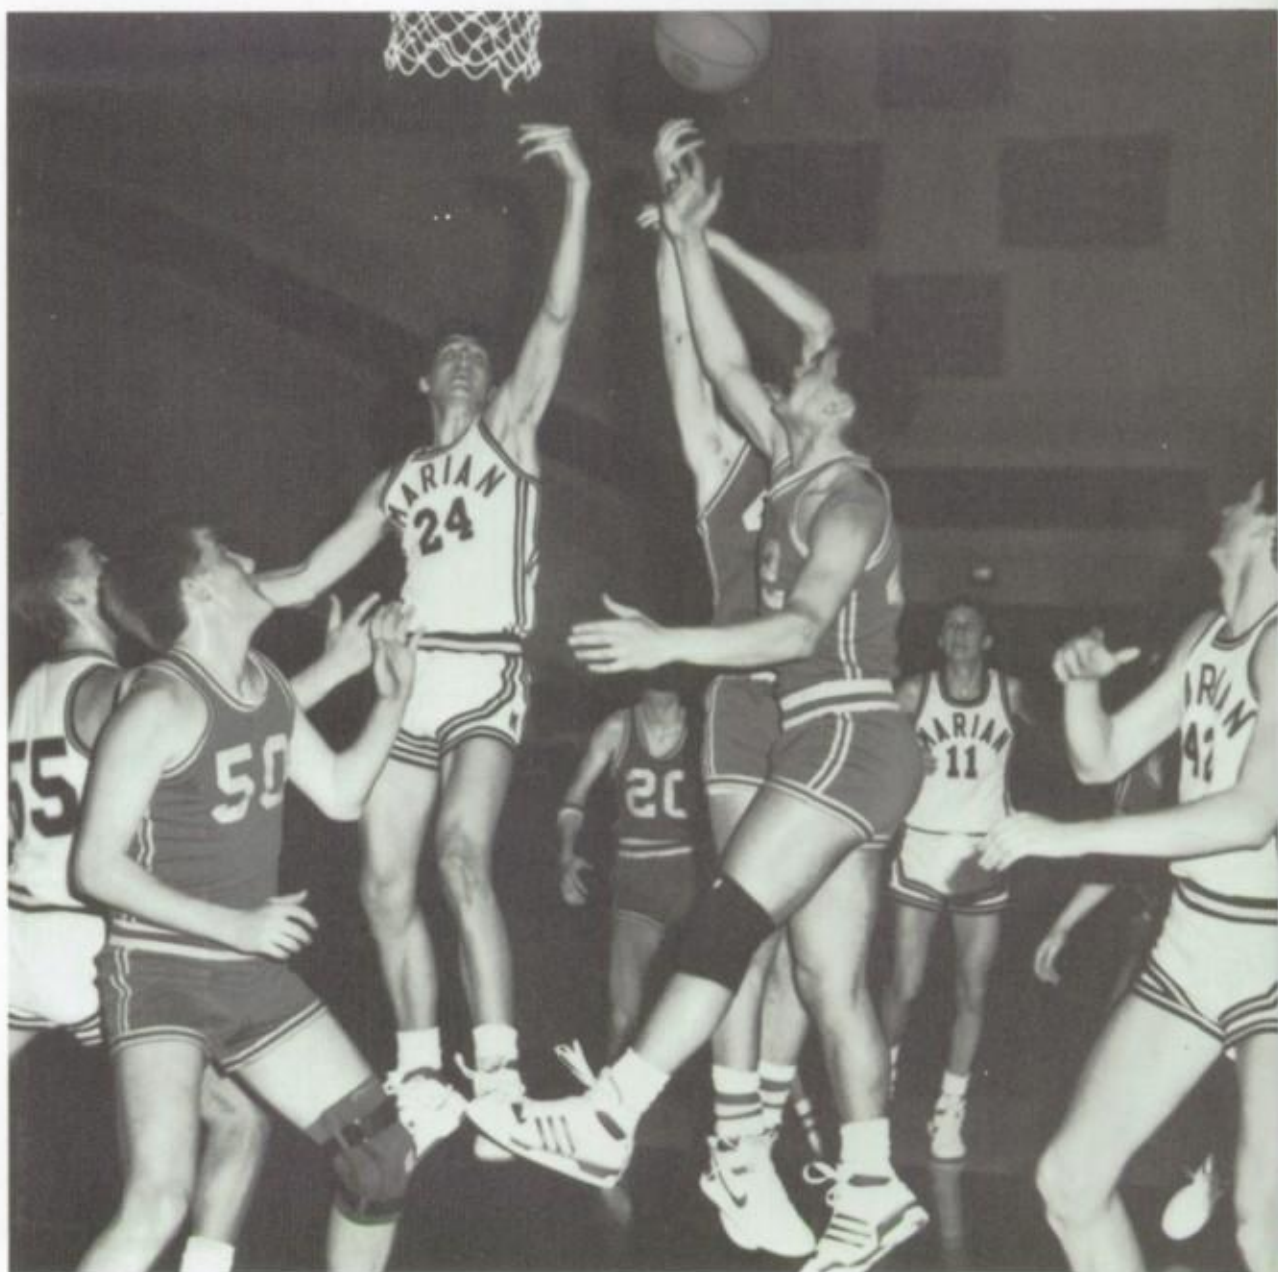

Dan Hobik was named the Most Valuable Player for leading the team in FG%, Rebounds and Scoring. He became the Career FG% leader with 55%, Career Rebound leader with 542, and the 5th All-Time Career Scorer with 799 points. Hobik was named to the All-Sectional and the All-Metro teams.

Supporting Dan were Pat Christianson, recipient of the Assists Award and the Moorman Award, Mark VanHuffel, captain and defense Award Winner, and Ray Ganser, winner of the FT% Award and the Most Improved Award.

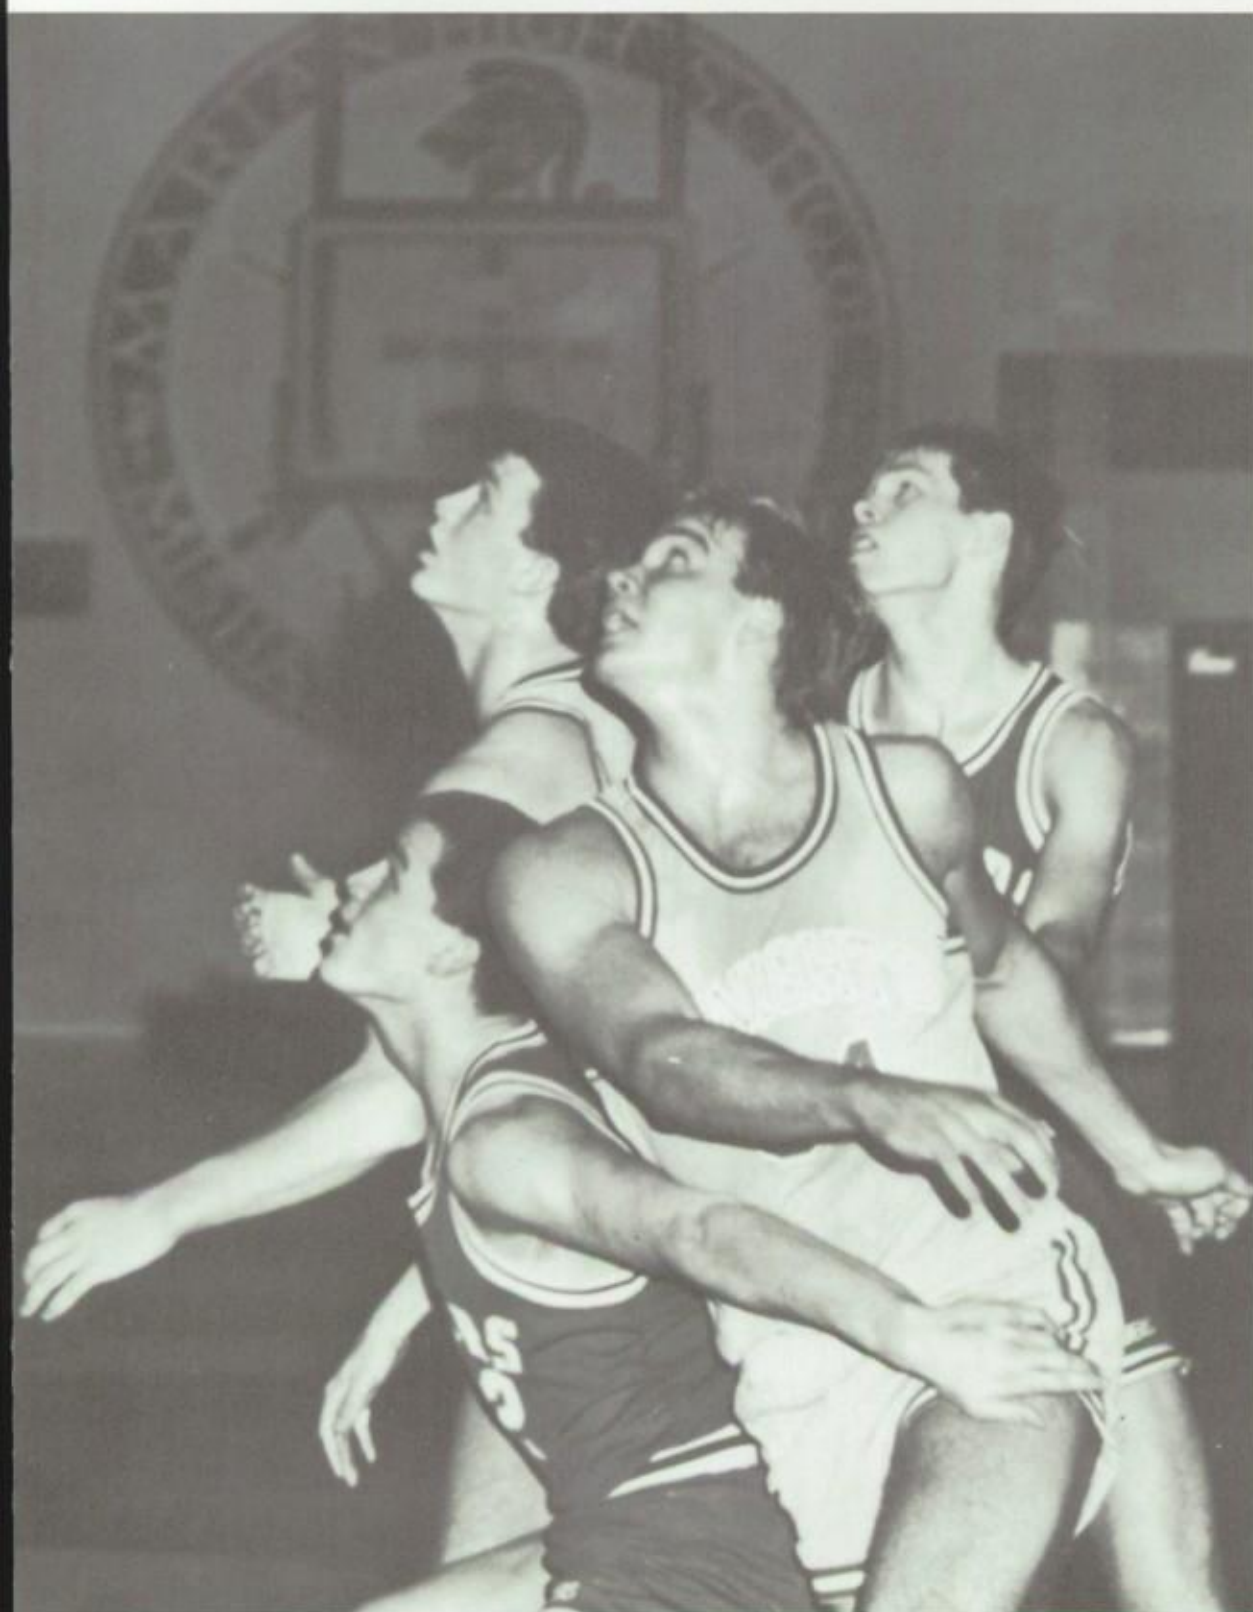

With a strong and versatile bench which saw many stars at different times in the season. Next Year looks promising.

Knights Readjust

This year's softball team had its ups and downs but still managed to make the season exciting in every way possible. When losing six key players from last year's squad, the big question is "How do you replace them?" The knights had no problem, they filled the holes gracefully. Although the 7-11 record doesn't show that the team was that great, the season was a lot of fun for the team.

The Tri-captains were Renae Conner, Kelly and Kerry McNamara, all of whom showed their leadership in many ways. But this year the team didn't just count on the captains for leadership, Laura Black and Ally

Renshaw also contributed in leading the team.

The Knights had a reputation to uphold this year in sectionals, after being runnerups in the Elkhart Sectional last year. This year the knights played in the Mishawak sectional and faced St. Joe, whom the knights had beat in regular season action by a score of 12-10. At the sectional, the knights fought hard but ended up losing 12-2 to St. Joe.

If the team stays together, they will be very competitive next year. I wish them luck and encouragement to keep the Knight Pride.

Frustrations!

The Marian High School Baseball Team had a rather frustrating season in 1988. Head Coach Joe Hardman attributed this to not playing to live up to the team's high expectations. "We would hit well but at someone." The season record was 15-11-1.

There were 36 players in the baseball program, three-fourths of whom will be returning next year — so the future looks bright. The captains were Pat Christianson, Ray Ganser, Mike Tafelski, and Jeff Spychalski. Award winners included M.V.P. Pat Christianson, M.I. Jeff Spychalski, M.A. Chuck Hruby.

Improving

As a team, girls' track improved their record to a 5-6 season. Included in this were two victories over archrival St. Joe. The last time that happened was . . . well, nobody remembers! Individually there was a lot of improvement as well. School records were set in the two-mile, 800 and 3200 meter relays. Several girls ran in sectionals and almost everyone had a personal best at some point throughout the season. Awards presented include: Lisa Buysse and Sara Gildea — Most Valuable, Julie Cavanaugh Most Improved, and Cheryl Fortunak — Mental Attitude.

With only four seniors graduating, prospects for next year's team are looking strong. Mr. Jim DeVreese coached this year's team and will be returning to lead next year.

The 1988 Track season, though disappointing record wise, was a good year of improvement! As the season went on the young Marian Track team started becoming very competitive! They gave 100% all the time! If this carries over to next year, they will be very competitive.

The Marian Track Team dedicated its season to Don Stevens who died in a motorcycle accident in the spring.

Don was a volunteer track coach in 1987. He was a great influence on many people that season, and his spirit will live on with the team!

Linksters Have An Impressive Season

The 1988 Marian Golf Team finished its season with a record of 12 wins and 8 defeats. The "Linksters" were dominated by five excellent underclassmen and senior captain Chris Walling. The highlights of the season were impressive victories over Lake Central (13-2) Rochester (9-3) and a triangular victory over Mishawaka, LaVille, and Northwood. The Rochester victory was the 100th win for Coach Haas in the last 8 seasons. With the expected return of Sophomores Tom Kelly and Tim Fujawa, Freshman Mike Freudenburg, Brian Bognar, and Tom Borger and Junior Betsy Bognar, the future of the golf program seems very bright.

Award winners were Chris Walling — Most Valuable, Tom Kelly — Most Improved, and Mike Freudenburg — Mental Attitude. Letter winners also included Betsy Bognar, Tom Bognar and Tim Fujawa.

Starting From Scratch

Swimming is what five Marian students chose to do this past winter, as Marian started its' own swim team. The Knights started from scratch to accomplish what coach Joe Carroll viewed as a successful season.

The Knights practiced at Notre Dame with St. Joe. The hard work payed off at the end of the season when Marian defeated St. Joe in sectionals. The Knights also had two relay teams that qualified for regionals. Next season appears to be more promising as the Knights have three experienced swimmers returning.

Spirit Week

Spirit Week 1988 got off to a colorful start on Tuesday, January 19 with Ribbon day. On this day each class dressed in a different color. The Seniors radiated their spirit with red, Juniors with green, Sophomores with yellow, and Frosh with blue.

Wednesday was a blast to the past with Hippy day. Class theme day took place on Thursday. Knights to Remember was the Seniors' theme, and their hall was decorated with memories of their four years at Marian. The Juniors' hall took first place in the hall decoration contest with the theme of Winter Knights. The Sophomores got wild with the theme Jungle Knights, and the Freshmen brought up the rear with Babes in Knightland, a very appropriate theme.

On Friday, the last day of Spirit Week, Marian was invaded by nerds of all shapes, sizes, and descriptions. The special week came to a close with Susanne Olson and Jeff Hammes crowned Spirit Queen and King.

Source Of Pride

The Debate and Quiz Bowl teams are a source of pride to M.H.S. The debate team was coached by Sr. Jeanne Ether Niswonger. The captain was Chris Dlugosz. Although the team never had a meet, they learned a great deal about the techniques of debate. It was a building year for the team and next year its members will be ready.

The Quiz Bowl team was coached by Dr. James Rosenberger. The team utilized all its power and went on to have a productive season. Marian can be very proud of its Debate and Quiz Bowl teams.

Leaders Guide

The Leadership team of Marian High School is important to the school. These people are chosen to be leaders of our school. Many students look up to them for guidance. These leaders of the school have a very important task; they are chosen to represent the school at all times. These people should be commended for their time and effort spent at the school. Activities included guiding new students around the school, leading prospective freshmen around during the open house, helping the guidance office with an alumni survey, and visiting the feeder schools to recruit for next year.

The Champs

Are you a sports oriented person, yet cannot hack the everyday practices? Or do you just like to play sports for the fun of it? Well at Marian this opportunity is given through Intramural football and basketball moderated by Coach Hite. This year's championship teams were: The Suicide Squad in football and the Traitors in basketball.

Winter!!

Other than the many sports offered at Marian there are clubs to join. One of these is the Ski Club. Every winter 50 or so students join the club, and go up to Swiss Valley on Tuesday nights, the bus leaves at 4:00 and gets back about 10:00-11:00. The club is headed by Mr. DeVreese and Mr. VanGoey. "I love ski club, it's great!" exclaims Jamey Bowers.

Along with Ski Club, members had a chance to go to Crystal Mountain, Colorado during Christmas break, so for all you avid skiers that never get the chance to go, or for you first timers, join the Ski Club and have a (snow) ball.

Involvement Leads Towards Excellence

The National Honor Society had an extremely active and productive year. Their efforts and service reached the entire community with their involvement in projects such as the Carnival of the Arts and Cholesterol screening. Bingo parties, a Christmas party, the tutoring program, personal projects, and the annual flower sale were among their other rewarding activities. Under the direction of Mrs. Foss and Sr. Jeanne Esther, the National Honor Society carried on the Marian tradition of excellence.

This year's officers were: President — Mary Pat Rosenthal, Vice President — Susanne Olson, Secretary — Jim Portolese, and Treasurer — Mark Minne.

Voice Of The Students

Student council is the voice of the students at Marian High School. Throughout the school year, they receive ideas and input from the student body. Closely working with sponsors, Mrs. Ann DeBaets and Mr. Gerry MacDonald, the officers worked hard to make this year a success. Jodi Holt, senior president, Karen Zieler, junior vice president, and Laura Black, senior secretary/treasurer, worked together on our successful 1987-1988 calendar sale which raised $67,000 ($45,000 profit from which student council received $6,000). The money was used for prizes and new scoreboards for the gym.

Student council also sponsored homecoming, spirit week, the food drive at Christmas and the turn-about dance.

In the years to come we await more ideas and new ways of doing things.

United Efforts Bring Success To Drama

Marian Drama has become an image of pride for the Marian community. Every year brings a pinnacle production, only to be topped by yet another stellar performance.

The months of hard work all become worth something the minute that applause is heard.

This year's productions, "Snoopy" and "Do Black Patent Leather Shoes Really Reflect Up?" both catered to specific age groups but were entertaining to all. "Snoopy" was a light-hearted comical play made up from short skits based on the lives of "Peanuts" characters. "Do Black Patent Leather Shoes Really Reflect Up?" was a healthy reflection of the Catholic education system of the 1960's.

Both plays received good reviews and were enjoyed by many.

The success of this year was greatly due to the united efforts of the director, Bob VanGoey, choreographer, Cherie Leatherwood and pianist, Matthew Pawlak, and the cast.

Creativeness

This year was an active one for the Artisans. With leaders Erin McKenna (Pres.), Susan Quinn (V-Pres.), and Angela Veldman (Sec./Treas.), the Art Club, with other activities, took a trip to Chicago to the Art Institute. Under the creative direction of Sr. Laura OSF and some senior Supervision, the club designed and painted a mural for the newly renovated Seminar Room, 114A.

The classes held their usual displays in the front lobby and in the library.

The National Scholastic Art Exhibit brought home two gold keys and four Certificates of Merit.

All in all, there is found within, a great amount of talent in the Art Department of M.H.S.

Successful Year

The Marian Science Club provides the opportunity for those members of the Marian Family who wish to do fun and exciting things with science as a general theme. This year the Science Club went on two field trips, one to Potato Creek, and one to Brookfield Zoo. Both met with success. No one was lost, and a few diligent chaperones managed to make it back in one piece.

Winter Festival

On February 12, 1988, Marian began its first annual Winter Festival. It was a great success! Activities ranged from basketball, killball, badmitton, and ping pong indoors, to football, softball, snowball fights, inner-tube races, and three-legged races outside. Hot chocolate and cookies were served in the cafeteria for the many cold and tired, but happy students retreating from the fun and games to rest.

Classes dismissed early on this Friday afternoon and the festival began soon afterwards. The afternoon was perfect! It was snowy but not too windy. The turnout was excellent, and smiling, snow covered people could be found everywhere. Let's hope this will become a tradition for future years at M.H.S.

New Experiences

If you are looking for some new experiences then the language clubs are just for you. Each club has something for you whether it be going to the zoo to going to France over spring break.

The French Club has been keeping busy since the beginning. Throughout the year, it's members have participated in a field trip to a French play as well as a trip to a French restaurant in Merrillville. All in all, the French Club, with the help of Mrs. McKenna, is a well grouped club.

If French does not interest you, then Latin will. The Latin Club, headed by Dr. Levenson, along with the Advanced Biology class went to the zoo where they hunted for the Latin names for certain animals. They also went to the Snite Museum where they enjoyed the different pieces of art.

Last but not least of all is the Spanish Club who, with Senora Foss, participated in a Christmas party where one of the members was quoted as saying, "Senora Foss knows how to party in Spanish." This can also be said for the rest of the Spanish Club as well.

Originality

With a significant amount of creativity, a person can go almost anywhere and do nearly anything. School newspapers are an excellent way for the education system to assist in sharpening the students' creative skills.

This year's Marian High School school newspaper, The Lance, was staffed by fourteen of the student body's most creative individuals and their immense originality was displayed in all of the school year's Lance issues.

The most obvious work to emerge from this creativity was the April Fool's issue, The Knightly Intruder. This particular paper required a name change because of its satirical nature poking fun at rags like The National Enquirer.

The April Fool's issue and the rest of the school year's issues of The Lance was an excellent example of the creativity that can result from such school publications.

During the 1987-88 school year, many events took place — nationally and locally — even within the school. As shown here, Bill Sanders came to talk, the Air Force Band came, and the calendar sale was a great success. Hockey was a sport that didn't have enough interest among M.H.S. students alone, so those interested played at other schools. Spirit Week, an annual event at M.H.S. was another highlight of the year.

Successful Year

After two years of being called geeks and ex-freshmen, the class of '89 has earned the right to be called upperclassmen. They showed their class unity by winning the hall decorations contest during Spirit Week with the theme Winter Knights. The annual magazine sale was again a big success to earn the money for the Prom. The class officers Jim Ernst as president, Jenn Burmeister as secretary, and Joe Cataldo as treasurer all did a great job this year with the class sponsor Mrs. McKenna.

Full-Hearted Spirit

The Sophomores, over the course of the year, have had many experiences. They elected Corinne Copens as their representative on the Homecoming court. She was escorted by Brendan Kluszynski. During Spirit Week the class decorated their hall with the theme "Jungle Knights", and won second place in the festivities. Angela Martin and Eric Krakowski represented their class for Spirit Court. Throughout the year, the sophomores continually demonstrated their spirit by participating full-heartedly in pep-assemblies.

Class Officers — Julie Ellis (Treas.), Eric Krakowski (Pres.), Jenny Suter (V-Pres.), and Angela Martin (Sec.).

Frosh Spirit

Found In Achievement And Helpfulness

No one realizes who the Freshman are and what they are capable of doing until they become upperclassman. However, this year's class is said to have great spirit; a bunch of eager minds willing to pitch in and help. This class has many members trying out new sports and striving to excel in them. This class is also accelerating academically as it tries to achieve more than just the average scores. The students are willing to help each other out when they need it — in both school and sports.

Colophon

To put the 1987-88 year into pictures and memories took the cooperation of staff members; Mr. Smith, advisor; McDonald's Studio; Jostens Printing and Publishing Company of Clarksville, TN; Jim Beckham, Jostens Representative; and Valerie Allison, inplant consultant; all of whom worked closely with the predominately Senior staff to help them over the rough spots.

Introducing the theme "Knight In Moments", the cover, designed by Missy Weber with the help of inplant artist John Doubler, is of silk-screen Medium Blue 525 with applied colors Blue 347 and Red Orange 365. The endsheets accent this cover as a soft Blue 314.

Throughout the book, the body copy was 10 pts., captions were 8 pt., and headlines were 36 pt. Style 15 Century Schoolbook. For the title page and division page boxes style 15i Century Schoolbook was used. All pages are 3 column except the opening and closing, which are both 4 column.

Eighty lb. gloss paper was used to make the 144 page Madrigal. The shipment of the 440 copies is contracted for Aug. 1988.

Carla Horvath concentrates hard to throw the shot put far.

Closing Moment

Interesting, silly, funny, serious, boring, sad, and exciting moments are all a part of the knights. The knight community makes moments happen. Moments full of emotion and closeness describe them best.

In my quest to capture these moments in the yearbook, I have received encouragement and help from all, and I wish to thank them. This page contains a sampling of all moments in the book.
